

Marking and Feedback

What does my marking mean?

When my objective is highlighted like this it means

I have met the learning objective

LO: To be able to use the features of a non-chronological report

I have met some of the learning objective

LO: To be able to use the features of a non-chronological report

I haven't met the learning objective and I need more support

LO: To be able to use the features of a non-chronological report

Marking throughout my work

✓ - Something I have done well in my work for example, good use of vocabulary, conjunctions, punctuation or a calculation.

○ - Something I have missed out or I could improve in my work. I need to correct this.

S - in the margin. I need to correct my spelling. Incorrect spelling will be underlined in green.

G - in the margin. I need to correct my grammar. Incorrect grammar will be underlined in green.

Marking at the end of my work

✓ - These are the things I've done well.

➔ - This is what I need to do to improve my work.
I will do this with my purple pen.

Self Assessment

I self assess my work at the end of each lesson.

I found this tricky and would like some more help please!

I'm not sure about this, I think I might need a bit more time.

I'm happy with how this went and I'm ready to move on!

I mark my own work using a red pencil.
I mark my friends work using a blue pencil.

Fix It and Reflection Time

At the start of each lesson I look at my feedback and make improvements to my work.

The purple pen of progress...

Gives you the power to:

- Respond to teacher feedback.
- Improve the quality of your work.
- Make progress and aspire to be the best you can be.
